Applied Beaver Oil

And Was Sorry He Did

Mr. J. B. Iler is now able to be out after a week's confinement, though he still goes with his right leg in a sling.

The cause of Mr. Iler's confinement was most unusual, and is as interesting to his friends as it was to him for a time. Mr. Iler was awakened from his slumbers a few nights ago with a slight pain in the muscles of his right leg. He arose and, taking a seat before the fireplace, began to apply Beaver Oil most vigorously according to directions. About the third rub, Mr. Iler was shocked (not to say disgusted) when the oil ignited, and a sheet of flame enveloped his entire limb. He called lustily for help, but the fire department failed to hear the alarm, and he fought the fire alone. His burns were quite serious, and though he is able to be out of the house, he is not yet fully recovered.

That was a pretty piece of devotion on the part of the wife who gave a piece of her jaw bone to repair her husband's leg. Now, if it will only be still long enough to knit with the other bone, all will be well.

MANY CANDIDATES FOR U. S. OFFICES

POSITIONS OF ATTORNEY AND MARSHAL IN DEMAND

The Savannah Press says: The sitting of the United States district court here has aroused new interest in the positions in connection with the incoming administration. While the holders of these positions have some time to run, there are numbers of applicants for all the places.

Those to be filled are the positions of district attorney, two assistant district attorneys and the United States marshal, all for the southern district of Georgia. Mr. Alexander Akerman is district attorney, Mr. Arthur Codrington and Mr. Charles Akerman, all of Macon, are the assistant attorneys, and Mr. Geo. F. White is United States marshal.

In that a number of Savannahians have been prominently mentioned for these places here, the interest is probably greater here than in any other portion of the district.

Mr. Akerman, it is understood, will not make any attempt to hold his position. Talking of the matter this morning he said: "It is my intention to place my case entirely in the hands of the incoming attorney general and remain in office as long as it is his opinion that my services are needed by the government, and retire whenever he is of the opinion that my office can be filled by someone of his own party without detriment to the government service."

It is understood that Mr. Akerman's assistants, Mr. Codrington and Mr. Charles Akerman, take the same position of their superior.

Three Savannahians have been prominently mentioned for Mr. Akerman's position, and a number of others have also been mentioned. Among those most active for the position in Savannah are Mr. Fred Saussey, Mr. R. M. Hitch and Mr. David C. Barrow.

Mr. Saussey was in college while President-elect Wilson was a professor there, and he studied under him. Mr. Saussey enjoys the personal friendship of Mr. Wilson, and is considered a likely man for the position. Captain Robert M. Hitch is a close friend to Senator Hoke Smith. He was also in college with Congressman Chas. G. Edwards, and he may get the support of these members of the lower house of Congress as well as that of Senator Smith.

CLAXTON BEGINS ACTIVE FIGHT FOR NEW COUNTY

PLANS BEING LAID TO REACH AGREEMENT WITH GLENNVILLE

The current issue of the Tattall Advertiser, M. E. Carter's paper D. W. Denmark, was destroyed by fire about 8:30 o'clock Monday night, entailing a loss of approximately $5,000 with no insurance. Besides the machinery and the lumber on the yard, three empty coal cars belonging to the Central of Georgia railway standing on the side track, were almost consumed, all the woodwork being burned off.

The fire originated from an unknown cause, and was well under way when discovered. The fire department was quick to respond to the alarm, and soon had an effective stream playing upon the flames, and to their good work is due much credit for the fact that a great conflagration was avoided. Beasley's blacksmith shop and a number of warehouses on the right-of-way of the Central railway were standing in such close proximity that their destruction seemed inevitable. For more than half an hour the stream poured steadily on the flames while the fire flew to a great distance, threatening even the power plant which was furnishing the water supply. The ease with which the fire was controlled and the water supply kept up have been commented upon generally by all who saw the firefighting.

The planing mill was owned by Mr. J. A. Wilson, who lives four miles in the country. It had been started up only a week ago after an idleness of several months. On the morning of the fire it had been operated only a few hours and was shut down before noon. The watchman who inspected the premises late in the evening states that there was no fire in the boiler room, and is at a loss to understand how it originated.

PROPOSED NEW COUNTY RALLY AT METTER

Metter, Ga., Feb. 24.—A new county meeting was held here Saturday. Over three hundred supporters were present. The meeting was called to order by the chairman, Dr. B. B. Jones, and speeches were made by Prof. T. M. Purcell, Col. J. D. Kirkland and Editor F. H. Sills. It was the third meeting held by the people here. Much interest has been manifested and a considerable amount of money has been raised—about $3,000 was raised.

It is stated that there has already been about $10,000 put into the campaign and about $5,000 more will be raised between now and June. The farmers from Bulloch, Emanuel and Tattnall were here in numbers. The people here have been working for a new county since 1905 and believe that they will succeed this time.

A feature of the meeting was that while Editor Sills was making his address, he referred to a certain town making a fight for a new county and had forged some of the supporters of Candler county to the list of names by the people of Stillmore and they wanted it clearly understood that they were working for the creation of Candler county with Metter the county seat, and that they represented the sentiment of the Emanuel county people.

When Burton Holmes recently gave his celebrated travelogue on "Panama," at Orchestra Hall, Chicago, he was seriously interrupted by the continual coughing of the audience. No one annoys willingly, and if people with coughs, colds, hoarseness and tickling in throat would use Foley's Honey and Tar Compound, they could quickly cure their coughs and colds and save this annoyance. ACTS ON THE LIVER

More Than a Laxative.

Calomel was for years the only known medicine that would loosen the liver. But calomel is dangerous, and people are not to be blamed for being afraid of it. Within the past few years many medicines have been put out to take the place of calomel, but their effect is on the bowels—not on the liver. W. H. Ellis Co. say that the only real liver medicine to actually take the place of calomel is Dodson's Liver Tonic, a mild harmless, vegetable liquid which they recommend to take the place of calomel and which gives prompt relief in cases of constipation, biliousness and sluggish liver.

So confident are W. H. Ellis Co. that they give their personal guarantee with every 50-cent bottle of Dodson's Liver Tonic. You can be sure that you are getting Dodson's by asking at this store if they are giving you the medicine they personally guarantee to refund money if unsatisfactory. (Adv.)

Scarboro "Raising Cane."

Rev. J. A. Scarboro, of this county, now located at Magnolia, Ark., is "raising cane" with the Roman Catholics, and is coming to the front as a national character in the battle against Roman aggression. Rev. Scarboro is nothing if not a fighter, and when he fights, he fights hard. He has established at Magnolia a weekly paper called the Liberator, the object of which is to expose the methods of the Roman Catholic church, and this he is doing weekly to a "fare you well." Incidentally, the Rev. J. A. is putting in his spare time—strange as it may seem that a fighting editor should have any spare time—making public addresses on the same line.

In his rounds he went up to the city of Little Rock to make one of these addresses, and it was there that he stirred up such commotion that it was almost necessary to call out the fire department.

The incident is told in his own paper, and is so full of interest that it is given to our readers:

The editor of the Liberator delivered two lectures in the Central Baptist church, Little Rock, Ark., on Thursday and Friday evenings of last week, on the subject: Romanism in Prophecy and History.

The crowd was small, but the interest was fine and grew as we went on. Several members of the house and senate honored us with their presence.

Mr. Posey, of Grant county, had introduced a bill in the house to inspect all institutions, including convents. It was referred to the judiciary committee, and at the hearing before the committee the Romanists put up a fight in opposition. Mr. Williams, of Logan county, and Mr. Buckner, of Chicot county, both Romanists, and the only two in the legislature, leading the fight on the bill, backed up by Mr. Spaulding, editor of the Romish paper, and Messrs. Snodgrass, Probst, Meisner, Arnold and Jas. Gray, all Romanists of Little Rock. No one appeared in advocacy of the bill it seems, save Mr. Posey, the author of the bill. All this occurred before we reached Little Rock, and the judiciary committee had reported adversely on Mr. Posey's bill.

Meantime Senator Holt of the Twentieth district had introduced a similar bill in the senate, which had been referred to the committee on education, and the hearing was set for Saturday morning. This was the situation when we lectured Friday evening. The audience was much larger, including members of the house and senate, and the lecture was a review of Romish dogmas, viceregency, infallibility, transubstantiation, purgatory, celibacy, confessional, convents. When we reached "convents," we talked about the "angels." Several Romanists were present, led by Mr. Spaulding, editor of the Romish paper in the city, and Mr. Williams, the Romanist representative from Logan county, where there is a Romanist colony, school, etc. Mr. Spaulding got up and asked to interrupt. He was allowed to do so; said we had hurt his feelings because he had a sister in a convent. Then he made various very scattering remarks which pointed nowhere in particular, but showed plainly that the object was to disturb and stampede the meeting. A crowd of hoodlums in the back corner rattled their heels at each effort of Mr. Spaulding, who became much confused over the privilege of making a speech he did not know how to deliver. Mr. Williams excitedly jumped to his feet and began to denounce the speaker. The hoodlums roared their heels on the floor. At this juncture two policemen came in and took seats. There was a subsidence of noise and vehemence. Rome was there; fight. Mr. Spaulding challenged and invited anyone to visit the convent "right now!" Editor W. M. Webb of the Missionary Baptist, with others, called his bluff and proposed to go with him "right now." So they filed out, but returned in a few minutes and reported that Mr. Spaulding said "it is an inopportune time." It was a pure bluff. Convents are under control of the "Mother Superior," and she under the bishop of the diocese, and neither Mr. Spaulding nor Mr. Williams has any authority to enter or invite others to do so.

The situation looked a little stormy for a time. Several parties told us the Romish crowd had decided "whiskey smell" on them, and it was reported that one of the principal agitators either owned or was "bar keep" in a saloon.

The meeting was then thrown open, and several spoke briefly and closed in good order. The opposition tarried outside, but friends gathered about us, almost lifted us off our feet and escorted us out and so the matter ended. The spirit and method of Romanism was there and demonstrated. Mr. Williams, of Logan county, was very obstreperous and noisy. He confessed to the committee of the senate at the hearing Saturday morning that he came near committing a breach of the peace at the church last night.

Mr. S. S. S., Van Buren street, Kingston, N. Y., (full name furnished on application) had such decided benefit from using Foley's Honey and Tar Compound that he shares her good fortune with others. She writes: "Foley's Honey and Tar Compound brought my voice back to me during a severe case of bronchitis and laryngitis. Oh, how many people I have recommended it to." Sold by Franklin Drug Co. PRESCRIPTION

For a Long Life.

This is the prescription for a long life given by an old gentleman in Connecticut, who is ninety-nine years old and still well and cheerful. "Live temperately, be slow to anger, don't worry, take plenty of exercise in the fresh air, and, above all, keep cheerful."

Should the system get run down—digestive organs weak—the blood thin and sluggish, take Vinol, which is a delicious combination of the medicine—body-building properties of cod-livers, with the useless grease eliminated and tonic iron added. We regard Vinol as one of the greatest body-builders and strength-creators in the world for aged people.

Mr. Mary Gray, of Columbus, Ga., says: "If people only knew the good Vinol does old people, you would be unable to supply the demand; it is the finest tonic and strength-creator I ever used."

We wish every feeble old person in this vicinity would try Vinol on our agreement to return their money if it fails to give satisfaction. W. H. Ellis Co., Druggists, Statesboro, Ga.

A Serious Neglect.

The children of Bulloch county are not supplied with supplementary readers; if any at all, very few. In many instances they are not even supplied with the books they need for use in school.

If our children ever make the progress that they should, they must be supplied with reading matter under careful selection. If the children are not given any reading matter besides the regular school readers, they will become discouraged by the monotony of the work required of them.

The state department of education has made arrangements with different publishing houses to supply these books to the children of Georgia at very low cost. They have been arranged according to grades, and therefore it is easy for any teacher to select just what each pupil will need. If the patrons will allow the children money to buy these books, they will never have cause to regret the investment. And it certainly is an investment—one that will bring larger returns than any other you will make with the same amount of money involved.

Can you think of any way whereby a child will ever become educated except through the medium of good books? Is it possible that you will be able to educate them without providing them with plenty of good books to read? You will agree that you cannot, so why not buy them these books now? It is absolutely necessary that they have them. It is better to buy them and give them to your children than to buy them and store them in a general library, because when they are stored in a general library, the children will be inclined to neglect them more than if they are given to them as their individual property. A child appreciates ownership. It has its distinct influence on the individual.

If you wish your child to make greater progress than your neighbor's, have his teacher order three or four books suitable to his grade, and watch him pass your neighbor's child. He will do it in a very short time. No doubt about it, if he will read the books you buy for him. If you will not buy your child these supplementary readers, don't you think for a moment that your neighbor is going to neglect it, for he is not. He sees the good of it and will have his children ahead of yours in the school work in a very short while if you don't do as he is doing—supply your child with plenty of good reading matter. It will keep that boy out of mischief many times when he is otherwise unoccupied.

The people of Oak Grove school community are going to vote on local tax the 20th of March. These people are alive to the needs of better teaching, better equipment and longer school terms. They will no doubt have success.

The New York Journal seems to have become unusually quiet since it opened up the war on unnecessary noises.

Development, Strength, Health

I teach a direct, scientific method of properly caring for the body. No apparatus. An ideal, rational application five or ten minutes a day will build the body and give it a tone that no liquid could. Is your body worth caring for? Say, Mr. Man, do you think you can continue neglecting the physical side and live out your allotted time? Not much. Continue in the same old rut and the doctor will have you; yes, and the Undertaker lives right around the corner. Did you catch that? Physical neglect means physical decay. And you, Mr. Hounding Well Man, you say you never were sick a day in your life and do not need my method! Perhaps you don't; that is, you think you don't, but I know better. You are a good man, perhaps, but not iron. If you desire to stay put, get some physical knowledge while you are up and not down. Results:

Ligger lungs, stouter heart, better digestive organs, better poise, better circulation and a better body.

Good for constipation and a farewell kiss to the pill box. Nothing finer for indigestion. Good-bye, dyspepsia! Good-bye! Splendid for nervousness, and forever of refreshing sleep. Mr. Indifferent Man, don't you think you had better investigate this matter while you have an opportunity?
